Veterans and Disabled Individuals

Regulations by the US Department of Labor with respect to disabled individuals, disabled veterans, and Vietnam Era Veterans require that federal Contractors provide an opportunity for self-identification to candidates seeking employment. Such self-identification is submitted on a voluntary basis, on a confidential basis, for use in accordance with regulations, and without subjecting the individual to adverse treatment.

Disabled / Veteran Classification(s)

- Disabled Person: Federal regulation defines a disabled person as one who (1) has a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more of such person's major life activities, (2) has a history of such impairment, or (3) is regarded as having such an impairment.
- Vietnam Veteran: Federal regulations define a veteran of the Vietnam Era as one who (1) served on active duty for a period of more than 180 days, any part of which occurred between August 5, 1964 and May 7, 1975, and was discharged or released with other than a dishonorable discharge, (2) was discharged or released from active duty for a service connected disability if any part of such active duty was performed between August 5, 1964 and May 7, 1975.
- Special Disability Veteran: (30% or more disability): Federal regulations defines a special disabled veteran as one who (1) is entitled to compensation under laws administered by the Veterans' Administration for disability rated 30% or more, (2) was discharged or released from active duty because of a service-connected disability.
